MININÉ IMINITA

So involved became the insanity pro ceedings before Judge Righelmer yesterday in the Psychopathic hospital, in which Miss Helen Lisne, a nurse, 4049 Sheridan road, was being tried on petition of Warren Lee, a law clerk, whom she had accused of mistreating her in a loop law office that has an "in-a-door d," that Judge Righeimer exclaimed: "There is lying on both sides. I am not trying to find out who is lying, but I am trying to find out who is crazy. The alleged attack was described by Miss Lisne and denied by Lee. N the stabilization of economic conditions cheap fuel is a factor of outstanding importance. is essential to better living.

Food and shelter, prime requisites of man, are val-ueless without fuel to cook the one and to heat and light the other.

Gas is the cheap fuel

Effective as to all meter readings on and after February 1, 1922, Chicago is to have new and lower rates for gas. This offers an added economy in the present period of readjusting living conditions.

The new rates will mean a very large loss in revenue to the Gas Company but despite that fact every one of our 700,000 customers can feel certain that the Service we have established over a period of years will be continuously rendered with undiminished certainty.

In these days when the housewife is anxious to make every penny of her allowance count-GAS assumes added importance because it is cheapclean-dependable.

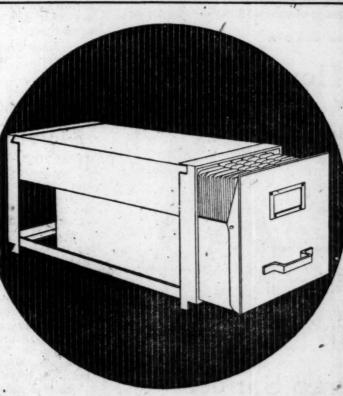

GAS for cooking—baking—washing—ironing and heating, is instantly efficient and perfectly controlled. Whatever your use of GAS, its regulation is subject to your own and immediate control. There is no loss in efficiency; you pay only for what you burn.

GAS SERVICE for industrial use insures a flexible factory fuel delivered at your burners, without any charge for hauling or handling. Gas Service is the pledge of a responsible organization that your industrial gas requirements will be met in any volume—at any time—at any place.

GAS is an essential of modern living. Its efficiency is proved. Its economy is admitted.

A Record Morning

at the Grand Central Terminal

THE New York Central Lines brought into New I York Monday morning the greatest number of through passengers on limited trains ever recorded at the Grand Central Terminal.

The bulletin board of incoming trains from Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Toronto, Buffalo and other cities presented the following story of this high tide of traffic;

> The Twentieth Century Limited in four sections

The Fifth Avenue Special in three sections

The Detroiter The Wolverine in five sections in two sections

> The Beaver in two sections

In all, twenty-one overnight trains from the West and Canada arrived at the Grand Central Terminal in time for the opening of the business day. On the way down the Hudson River valley breakfast was served to 1875 passengers - a volume of restaurant business equalled by few of the largest hotels.

One of the reasons why business men prefer the overnight service of the New York Central Lines is that they are assured of a comfortable night's sleep, as well as a dining service of acknowledged excellence.

No particular instances have been menoned, however, although it is a good bet that some manager or club has brought on the ruling by dealing with a coveted player with the idea of making him dissatisfied with his job and thus bringing about his transfer. One thing that probably has had a bearing on the pending order is the case of Eddie Roush, the Reds' outfielder. The management of the Giants has let it be known, in a roundabout way, that Roush would fit in nicely with McGraw's machine. It will locate a hole in the ice and there get on the job watchfully waiting for some poor fish to come up for air. When one appears the alert little owl makes short work of it.

However, fish forms but a relatively small part of the screech owl's food during the year. Investigation shows that with the exception of the bur rowing owl this bird eats more insects than any of the other owls. It is keen for mice also, and is not averse to crawfish, frogs, toads, etc.

The Biological Survey examined the ward defense of Eile, who inflicted stomachs of about 254 screech owls heavy damage around the body. Each in order to get a line on the tastes of is bent on winning the popular verdict this beneficial little bird. In about 15 tonight, per cent of the 254 remains of birds were found, and a third of these were English sparrows.

During the summer the screech owl feasts on insects and grasshoppers, crickets and beetles. As many as fifty grasshoppers were found in the stomch of one bird.

When it comes to small mammals we find this little hunter commonly bags field mice, white footed mice, and house mice, although occasionally chip-munks and moles are dined upon. With prospects for a championship track team at the University of Chicago, Prof. Harold G. Moulton of the athletic association announced yesterday that the team would compete in the Drake and Illinois relay carnivals and would make a trip to Japan to meet university teams there during the summer.

Prof. Moulton also said that the team probably would meet Stanford university in California on some date in March. The Maroons will not compete in the Penn relay games this year because the east failed to support the national intercollegiate outdoor meet held here last June.

IX western championship skating cevents will be decided in connection with the thirty-first annual Derby of the Northwest Skating club at Humboldt park Sunday. There will be four races for men and two for women. Miss Rose Johnson of the Northwest club should win the title in the women's events.

The men's races promise some of the best competition of the season. In order to win the western championship a skater must take part in all four events. First place will count 30 points, second position 20, and third 10.

But of almost equal importance with the new rates is the statement of President Insull of the gas company that the rates will be put into effect "if there is nothing in the order in conflict with the bare statement of the Mr. Insull said, however, that it is his "intention to appeal to the state courts for the protection of the interests of the stockholders." Necessarily this proposed suit will assert that the commission was not warranted in making so large a rate reduction, but the rincipal object of the suit will be to obtain a ruling upon the legal rights the public will obtain any benefit. The of the company and stockholders.

The old utilities commission placed the street car fare reduced from 8 to the value of the gas property at $85. $00,000, and the commerce commission federal judges held that the cut was yesterday added thereto $2,600,000 in so large that it was the equivalent of confiscation, under present operating extensions made since. Hydrox Company 7½ Per Cent Serial Gold Notes

The word "Hydrox" has become synonymous with purity and

On these qualities has been built the third largest ice cream company

To provide adequate capital for its rapidly growing business, the company is issuing $200,000, 71/2% Serial Gold Notes, due December 31, 1922-23, callable at 103 on any interest date.

This issue is a direct obligation of the company and is further secured through collateral deposit and the personal endorsement of Mr. Thos. H. McInnerney, President of the Company.

The notes have the benefit of a monthly sinking fund and provide for retirement of the entire issue at maturity.

Earnings of the Company for the last three years have averaged ten times interest charges on this issue and eight times interest charges on all funded indebtedness. Earnings for the first ten months of 1921 were in excess of twenty times the interest charges on this issue.
